

PASSPORT TO THE WORLD / 2009 HOME HOSPITALITY RELEASE

Name of Participant: _____ DOB: _____

On the following Passport to Israel programs – Israel Journey, Trek Israel, and both of the Euro-Israel Journey programs – the second weekend in Israel is a “Home Hospitality Weekend” (Thursday night to Sunday morning). This weekend provides an opportunity for teens to visit with family or friends in Israel. Participants without prior home hospitality arrangements are welcome to join up with the arrangements made by a fellow participant on the program – with prior parental consent. A supervised alternative program is also available, and a supplemental fee of $300 applies.

This form is intended for participants who will be taking advantage of the Home Hospitality Weekend to visit friends/relatives in Israel. This form needs to be submitted to the Passport office no later than May 1, 2009

HOME HOSPITALITY RULES

- No participant will be allowed to leave for the free weekend on public transportation. Every participant that leaves for the free weekend must be picked up by an adult aged 21 or older. There will be pick-up/drop-off locations for friends/family Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. The pick-up time will approximately 6:00 PM on Thursday and the drop-off time will be approximately 8:00 AM on the following Sunday.
- You may also permit your son/daughter to join a fellow participant at their relatives or family friends for the Home Hospitality Weekend. In this case, you are still required to supply the details of who will pick up your child and where your child will be throughout the weekend.
- By signing this consent release, you are allowing your son/daughter to leave the group during the weekend. BBYO rules remain in effect throughout the free weekend, whether the participant remains with the group or visits with friends/family.
